CODE OF CONDUCT

Everyone who attends Anime North should be able to feel comfortable and safe. “No.” means No, “Go away.” means Go Away Now and Don’t Come Back.

Intentionally touching anyone without their consent can be considered assault and may result in police involvement.

“Glomping” and “Free Hugs” are still physical contact, you need to ask first.

Don’t touch someone who appears to be either transgender or cross-dressing to find out if their body parts are real.

Yaoi Paddles, Yuri Paddles and similar items are not to be carried in public.

Pressuring or bribing people to perform PDAs in public spaces, whether same-sex or male-female, is harassment.

Harassment can be:

Unwanted talking, touching, or photographing.

Hanging around someone who asked you to leave.

Being gross or threatening just to ruin someone’s con experience.

Anyone who is threatened or harassed, or sees others in trouble should approach con staff for help.

COSPLAY GUIDELINES
Costumes worn at Anime North must conform to the following rules or the wearer may be asked to cover up or leave the convention.

Footwear with soles must be worn in convention space. “Invisible” shoes are acceptable for cosplay.

Anyone in a costume that is bulky, restricts vision or movement, or presents other safety issues should travel with an escort to prevent problems in high-traffic areas. If no escort is available, you may be asked to remove and safely carry the portions of your costume causing concern.

WEAPONS & LARGE PROPS
All weapons or large props must be checked and authorized by the Weapons Master. Upon approval, the weapon(s) will be bonded and your convention badge marked accordingly.

The Autograph Spotlight are the times each day we have scheduled them to be there for sure.

Autograph Guidelines

All Guests have the choice to charge for signing autographs. Please check with staff before getting into any guest's lineup. Prices for autographs are decided by each guest.

Rules for All Guests:

- Guests may refuse to sign any item, at any time.
- No photos without guests’ permission
- Do not go behind the autograph tables.
- Wristbands or tickets may be required for some autographs

Scheduled Sessions:
- One item per person, per guest.
- Lineups will begin no sooner than 30 minutes before scheduled start times.
